

Mediascape Instructions

The collaboration station can be used with the OAL computer attached or your personal computer.

Plug the HDMI cord into your computer. If your computer doesn't accept HDMI visit the AskUs desk for help

Use the puck connected to your computer to select which monitor you would like to display your screen to. You can display to 1 or 2 screens at a time.

An example of a laptop connected to the puck. You can connect any device with an HDMI output

An example of an OAL computer displayed on the right with the laptop displayed on the left.